

1/3

*FIG. 1*PRIOR ART

2/3

FIG. 2

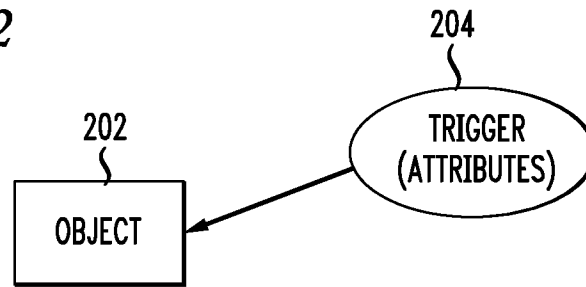

FIG. 3

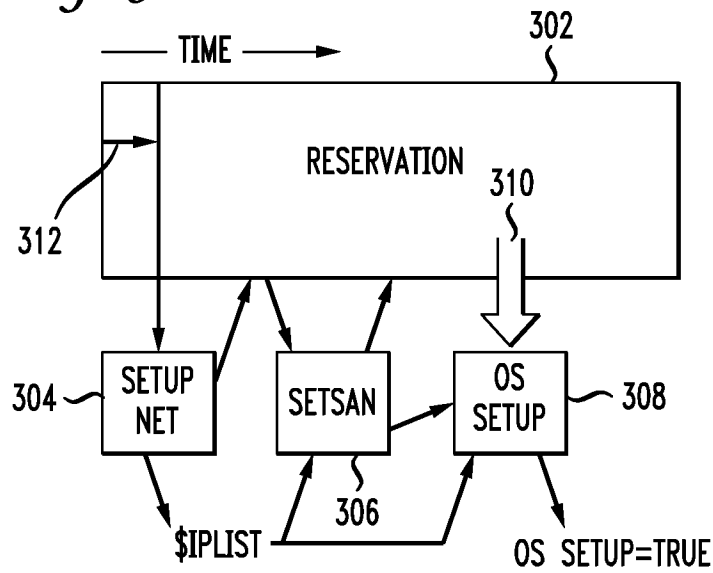

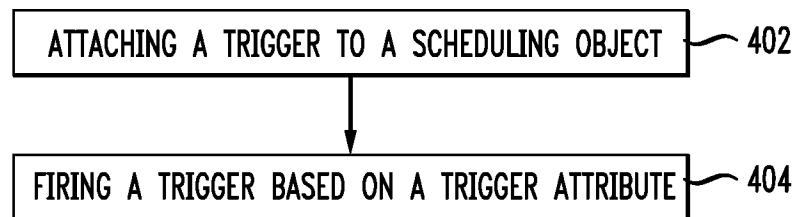

FIG. 4

3/3

FIG. 5

The image shows a 'Create Trigger 1' dialog box with the following sections and elements:

- Trigger Creation: A text field containing 'Create a trigger for when the reservation' followed by a dropdown menu showing 'starts'. Callout 502 points to the dropdown.
- Trigger Start Time: A text field containing 'Have the trigger start' followed by a numeric input '0' with up/down arrows, the word 'minutes', a dropdown menu showing 'before', and the text 'the reservation starts.'. Callout 504 points to the entire section.
- Trigger Action: A text field containing 'When the trigger launches have it' followed by a dropdown menu showing 'cancel the reservation.'. Callout 506 points to the dropdown.
- Trigger Executable: A text field containing 'The application or script to execute is' followed by a file selection box (callout 508) and another text field containing 'The application takes the following arguments' followed by a text area (callout 510).
- Reservation Utilization Threshold: A text field containing 'Utilization Percentage Threshold' followed by a slider control (callout 512) with a scale from 0 to 100.

At the bottom of the dialog are three buttons: 'Save Trigger', 'Erase Trigger', and 'Cancel'.